ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

First and foremost, I express my gratitude to my supervisors, Prof. Pushp Lata and Dr Narayan Choudhary for their guidance, patience, invaluable input, timely feedback and constructive criticism, which helped me in my research journey.

I am thankful to Prof. S.K.Choudhary, member of my Doctoral Advisory Committee, for his valuable suggestions, constant support and feedback on my thesis. I also wish to express my gratitude to the member of the Doctoral Advisory Committee, Dr Rajneesh Choubisa for his advice and comments on my thesis. I sincerely thank Prof. Devika Sangwan, Head of Department and Dr K.S. Bhattacharya as DRC Convener for their support. Also, I wish to express my gratitude to all the past HODs, DRC conveners, and faculty members of the HSS department for their kind support time-to-time. I thank the supporting staff of the Department of Humanities and Social Sciences, Mr Anil, Mr Ajeet, Mr Prakash, and Mr Ramesh, for their support.

I would humbly express my regards to the Vice-Chancellor, Director and Deans of Birla Institute of Technology & Science (BITS), Pilani for allowing me to pursue my doctoral studies by providing necessary facilities and financial support. I express my gratitude to the Deans and Associate Deans of AGSRD for their constant official support in organizing my research work. All other staff members of AGSRD are also gratefully thanked for their help.

I would like to extend my gratitude to Shri Tara Nand Jha, Arun Mandal, Kailash Jha, Manohar Pathak, Prof. Daman Kumar Jha, Dilip Kumar Jha and everyone who helped me during my field visit in Darbhanga and Madhubani, and especially my friends Rakesh and Chandan without their support the field survey would not have been possible. I sincerely thank Prof. Sheerish Choudhary, Prof. Bhim Nath Jha, Prof. Amarnath Jha, and Prof. Ram Dev Jha for their valuable inputs. I also thank all the participants who allowed themselves to be interviewed.

I am also thankful to the Fulbright program, for providing me with the scholarship to visit Utah for nine months. It allowed me to access the University of Utah library and meet Professor Marianna Di Paolo, whose timely advice on framing and interpreting my research questions proved to be a great help for my research. I thank Professor Francis Hult for patiently answering my questions and invaluable insights into the language policy research techniques. I would like to extend my gratitude to Mr. Sachin Kumar for helping me with Statistical Analysis and developing my understanding in SPSS.

I would like to thank Mr Giridhar M. Kunkur, Librarian, and Deputy Librarian Mr Ishappa Bandi for their timely help and for providing me with various books and online journals related to my study. I am thankful to the librarian and staff members of Central Institute of Indian Languages, Mysuru; University of Utah, USA; Sahitya Akademi Library, Delhi; Nehru Memorial Museum and Library, Delhi; Indira Gandhi National Centre for the Arts, Delhi; Central Secretariat Library, Delhi; Lalit Narayan Mithila University, Darbhanga; and Kalyani Foundation, Darbhanga.

I cannot forget to acknowledge my two physicist friends, Pradeep and Chandu (Baby Owl), for making the pandemic time endurable and a memorable one in Pilani with friendly banter, food hogging, exchange of stories and ideas, and being there for me during my highs and lows. I want to thank Connor for proofreading my papers. I would also like to thank Dina, Ishita, Amit, Mrinalini, my department friends and colleagues.

Last but not the least, I would like to thank my parents for their love and support. Initially, I received criticism from people that my topic would not be researchable. I am thankful to my mother for giving me the strength to disregard these critiques and encourage me to pursue my research with enthusiasm and confidence. I am also grateful to my siblings and brother-in-law for believing in me during my most difficult times and always cheering me up.
