

Acknowledgements

First of all, I would express my heartfelt gratitude to my mentor and supervisor, Prof. Anshuman Dalvi for his guidance and support throughout my Ph.D. His inspiring nature and constant encouragement helped me achieve great heights in the past few years. I am also indebted for his help while critically reviewing my thesis. I couldn't have hoped for a better teacher and for that, I will be eternally grateful to him.

I am extremely thankful to Prof. R N Saha, Vice Chancellor, BITS-Pilani, and Prof. Sudhir Barai, Director, BITS-Pilani for providing me necessary facilities and financial support to pursue my doctoral research. I am also grateful to Prof. M. B. Srinivas (Dean) and Dr. Jitendra Panwar (Associate Dean), Academic Graduate Studies and Research Division, BITS-Pilani for the administrative and official support. I am grateful to CSIR, Govt. of India, and UGC-DAE CSR, Indore for providing me fellowship to pursue my doctoral research

I wish to thank the present head of the Department of Physics, BITS-Pilani, Prof. Rakesh Choubisa, and all the previous heads of the department for their constant support. It gives me immense pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to my Doctoral Advisory Committee (DAC) members, Prof. Raj Kumar Gupta and Prof. Navin Singh for their valuable suggestions and support during the thesis review and overall progress review in my Ph.D. I am also a pleasure to express my sincere gratitude to Departmental Research Committee convener Prof. Manjula Devi for her support and guidance in the submission of the thesis. At the same time, I am also thankful to all the faculty members of the Physics Department for their kind support. I humbly extend my thanks to Mr. Rajiv Gaur, Mr. Shrikant Sharma, and Mr. Kundan Singh Shekhawat for their help relating to official work.

I am grateful to Dr. D. M. Phase and Dr. Mukul Gupta, UGC DAE CSR, Indore for their valuable support in synchrotron based experimental studies. I am incredibly grateful to Prof. Yogesh Kumar, ARSD college, University of Delhi, for his support in device fabrication aspects.

I am incredibly grateful for having wonderful friends who have been extremely supportive in my Ph.D. tenure at BITS-Pilani. I would start by thanking Dr. Rajinder Kashwan, Dr. Neelakshi Sharma, Ms. Gurpreet Kaur, Ms. Shrishti Sharma, and Ms. Neha Narwal for being a trustworthy friends and providing me moral support. I am also thankful to Dr. Pradeep Kumar, Dr. Shivangi Priya, Mr. Shivaraja, Mr. Amrit Kumar, Mr. Chandrachud Vaswar, and Ms. Anju Panthi for making my campus life joyful.

I am incredibly grateful to the Almighty for giving me Prof. Anshuman Dalvi and Ms. Swapna Dalvi as my guardian in the campus who makes my life easier and fruitful stay.

Finally, I would like to owe my deepest gratitude to my parents M. Amumacha Singh and M. Hemabati, and my brothers M. Manichandra and M. Uday for not losing hope against all odds and their constantly moral support. Special thanks to Kh. Sangita Devi for her constant support and believing me.

Lastly, I pay my humble gratitude to the Almighty for watching over me and giving me the strength in difficult times.
