During the lab works, I came across numerous students. Interactions with them always helped for refining my ideas. I am thankful to all of them for their kind supports.

Words cannot express my gratitude to my family. A huge loss in my life happened during my Ph.D. work. The untimely demise of my brother Mr. Jaison George. I always pray to the almighty to grant eternal peace to his soul. In these most difficult situations my father and mother always stood by me. Their great support and motivation helped me in completing this task. Without their generous sacrifices, this work could not have been possible for me. I cannot give enough thanks to Ms. Arathi A P for her endless support to me, morally and personally. Her positive attitude and dreams always motivated me to work hard to attain those dreams. Thank you for your encouragement, motivation and love for me.

Helps received during this tenure is endless and cannot be counted on these pages. My sincere thanks to all the people whom I miss to acknowledge, who have helped me directly or indirectly and my well-wishers for their prayers and helps for the smooth completion of this task.

Last but not the least; I thank almighty, who graced me to identify a righteous path and to finish this task.

Ginson George
