I would like to thank all those who helped me and encouraged me during my PhD.

I would particularly like to thank:

- Professor Udayan Chanda for his rigorous attention to detail about the process of doctoral research and friendly approach to supervision. It has been a privilege for me to work under his guidance. He has been a source of immense energy, inspiration and motivation to me. He not only provided me the cognitive knowhow necessary for doing this research, but also stood beside me at every step of this journey. No words can be enough to thank him for his guidance and support.
- I would like to pay gratitude to BITS Pilani for providing me the necessary facilities to complete the research work.
- I express my sincere thanks to Prof. G. Sundar, Director Off-Campus programs; Prof. S. Gurunaranan, Dean- WILP; Prof. Srinivas Regalla, Dean- Practice School; Prof. Souri Banerjee, Dean- Faculty Affairs and Prof. K. Bindumadhavan, Group Leader- Management in WILP for encouraging me to complete my PhD studies fast.
- I express my sincere thanks to Dr. Rajesh Matai and Dr. Satyendra Kumar Sharma for their constant guidance and support as the DAC members.

However, the most important contribution to this work came from my family for their unconditional support during my long hours on my study table at the home, studying and writing. My parents and my wife continuously supported me during my PhD Research. They offered me a lot of “flexible” time for my research, which we could have otherwise spent together over the past four years and cherished it for many, many years to come. To my wife Dr. Ankita Nagpal, and to the children: Hunar and Tanmay. No less contribution is of my lovely parents (Sh. R.L. Nagpal and Smt. Darshan Nagpal) who encouraged me to complete my PhD quickly. I am proud of you and wish you good luck.
