INDIAN TRADE OF KOBE.

Due to its favourable situation as a Port and to its close proximity to Osaka, the great manufacturing centre of Japan, Kobe holds the leading position in Foreign Trade in general, and especially in Indian Trade.

In 1934, Kobe's exports to India amounted to ¥97,673,000; imports from India, to ¥188,004,000, reaching the total of ¥285,677,000.

Compared with the previous year, the total amount of Kobe's India Trade showed an increase of more than 40%.

Exports from Kobe to India occupy 40.5% of Japan's export to that country, while imports are 64.9% of Japan's imports from India.

In short, 54% of Japan's India Trade has been done in the Port of Kobe.
